Discuss as a class

- Have the students complete the “peersuasion” worksheet in their packet
- Go through the discussion questions in the slides with the students as a class
  - Discuss the students answers that they had
- Have the students get into 5 even groups by numbering them off by 5
  - Each group comes up with their top 5 influences for teen’s for drugs and alcohol
  - The students should fill these in on the “Top Influences” page in their packet
- Once each group is finished, determine the overall top 5 for the entire class and write them on the board
  - The students should fill these in on the “Top 5 Influences” page in their packet
- Introduce refusal skills to the class in the slides
- Have the students come up with what makes easier/harder to come to refuse something? They may discuss this in their 5 groups
  - Once they have written their answers in their “Saying ‘No’” worksheet, go over the answers in the slides
- Have the students come up with what makes a refusal effective/ineffective. They may discuss this in their 5 groups
  - Once they have written their answers in their “Saying ‘No’” worksheet, go over the answers in the slides
- Introduce the 7 refusal skills to the class using the slides
  - Have the students open their packet to the “refusals observer checklist” page
- The students will complete this page as
- the class goes through the mock scenarios together
- Have the students complete the “Let’s Practice” worksheet in their packet
  - Once they complete the page, they will read their responses on the worksheet to their group members.
  - The other group members will fill out the chart on the following page in the packet as they listen to their group members’ scenarios
  - The students will also complete the two reflection questions below the chart
  - Discuss the reflection questions as a class
